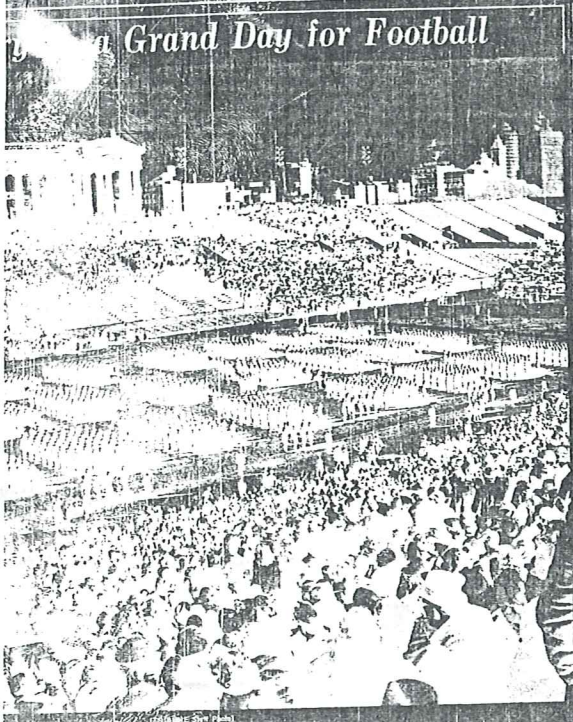
...a Grand Day for Football



...Tribune Staff Photo
...Mighty Falcons, Air Force cadets from Air Force academy massed on field for drill.

DALEY GREETS DIGNITARIES AT AIRPORT

President Sends His Regrets

Chicago's planned welcome of President Kennedy for the Army-Air Force football game in Soldiers' field—a contest he helped arrange—died a-borning yesterday. The South Viet Nam crisis kept the President in Washington.

But a number of Washington officials who hail from Illinois made the trip anyway in Kennedy's jet plane.

Only scant gatherings, some waving placards and signs, lined Jackson boulevard and Michigan avenue as an auto caravan took the party from O'Hare International airport to the Conrad Hilton hotel for a brief reception, then on to Soldiers' field for the game.

Two Senators in Party

In the group, met at the airport by Mayor Daley, were Sen. Paul H. Douglas (D., Ill.), Senate minority leader; Sen. Douglas (D., Ill.); Justice Arthur Goldberg of the United States Supreme court; Labor Secretary W. Willard Wirtz; Nicholas deB. Katzenbach, deputy attorney-general; John Gleason, director of the Veteran's administration; John Reilly, a justice department official recently named to the Federal Trade commission; and James Saxon, comptroller of the currency.

A huge throng which had been expected to greet the President did not show up after police in cars equipped with loud-speakers toured the caravan route and told of Kennedy's last-minute cancelation.

Kennedy Calls Daley

Daley told reporters that Kennedy phoned him of his decision several hours before his scheduled arrival in Chicago.

Sen. Douglas told Daley at the airport that Kennedy "asked us to convey his regrets to you."

Suzanne Salinger, 12, daughter of White House press secretary Pierre Salinger was disappointed when the Viet Nam revolt forced her father to stay in the capital. She asked to the plane. Secretary Wirtz volunteered to be her father's chaperone.

Arriving earlier at O'Hare attend the game was Sen. Barry M. Goldwater (R., Ariz.), leading contender for the 1964 Republican presidential nomination and major general in the air force reserve.

Press Plane Returns

At the game, the Presidential party—minus the President—joined nearly 20,000 spectators in watching intricate drills and maneuvers by the corps of 2,500 gray-clad cadets from the military academy at West Point, N. Y., and the 2,500 blue-clad Air Force academy cadets from Colorado Springs, Colo.

After the game, the Presidential party was whisked by auto back to O'Hare airport, where it boarded the plane and returned to Washington. A press plane carrying Washington newspapermen to Chicago for the President's visit, was 45 minutes from O'Hare when it was called back after Kennedy's abrupt cancellation.

Witnesses See Bodies of Diem, Nhu in Capital

Report Brothers Die by Bullets and Stabbing

MILD, NICE GUY

Nguyen Ngoc Tho, ex-premier of South Viet Nam, known as a "mild, nice guy," was shot dead with Ngo Dinh Diem, ousted ruler.

SAIGON, Viet Nam, Monday [Sunday] (AP) — A Buddhist-led provisional regime controlled nervous Saigon today after a bloody coup that brought downfall and death to President Ngo Dinh Diem and his brother, Ngo Dinh Nhu.

The new regime declared Ngo Dinh brothers died by suicide, no explanation circumstances.

[According to a Reuters report, diplomatic sources in Singapore today said reliable witnesses in Saigon declared the bodies of Diem and Nhu in Saigon.]

R. O. Essoyan, Associated Press reporter, saw unofficial photographs of bodies identified as those of Diem and Nhu.

The picture of Diem showed him lying beside a personnel carrier with a soldier leaning over him. His body, dressed in a dark garment, bullet-riddled and there was evidence he had been shot in the head.

Gen. Duong Van Minh

Bruises on Body

Nhu's body, bearing bruises as tho he had been beaten, was lying on a stretcher. Reports of death by stabbing, from other sources said.

Judging from the reports of the witnesses, it appeared that the two men had committed suicide. What led to the official explanation

It was not disclosed whether the two bodies were

Officially, coup leaders said they were looking for members of the Ngo Dinh family in order to hand over [illegible]

There were [illegible] bers known to [illegible] Mrs. Nhu's children [illegible] to be safe in [illegible] luxury summer [illegible]

Celebrate in Streets

Jubilant [illegible] flooded the streets of [illegible] game yesterday [illegible] the streets. But [illegible] they [illegible] homes [illegible]

[illegible]

...REVEALS NEW 'PAINKILLERS'

Anesthesiologist Uses Baking Powder, Salt

Baking powder or table salt, substances which have no pain-nothing powers, are effective pain relief after surgery, an ...anesthesiologist ... on anesthesia said yesterday.

Dr. Irving K. Beecher, a re... anesthesia ... today's school ... has revealed ... salt or baking ... powder ... after taking ... salt or baking powder ... believe the sub... are important pain fe... doctors.

Imagined Pain Lingers

Dr. Beecher, Harvard professor ad... delivered a conference of the American Society of Anesthesiologists in the Palmer House.

"Pain after the initial pain of ... and ... subsided, the pa... need not ... placebo, like table ... salt or baking powder, to assure himself the pain has gone away, Dr. Beecher said.

They Resuscitater

Dr. Beecher is widely known for his work on pain and pain relief. He was one of 10 American physician-scientists to receive "Modern Medicine's" 1959 distinguished service award and has secured at the Washington university of medicine, Oxford

Goldwater Runaway in Nation-Wide Poll

New York, Nov. 2 (AP)—Sen. Barry Goldwater of Arizona is the runaway choice in a nation-wide poll of Republican Presidential preferences for 1964, taken by the Associated Press among Republican state and county leaders.

Of the 1,404 who answered a questionnaire, a total of 55.1 per cent voted Goldwater the party's strongest candidate against President Kennedy as of today.

Fewer, however, believe Goldwater will be nominated. Here his vote was 301—A 54.2 percentage of those who replied.

Nixon, If there's Deadlock

Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller of New York received 99 votes as the strongest candidate and Richard M. Nixon, the 1960 G.O.P. presidential candidate, received 44.

On the outlook for the nomination, Nixon had 72 votes to 65 for Rockefeller. Moreover, a sizeable number of those who favor Goldwater for the nomination predicted that if a deadlock develops in the nominating convention Nixon will emerge again as the G. O. P. candidate.

The convention, scheduled to open in San Francisco July 13, has a tentative apportionment of 1,306 delegate votes.

2,961 Republicans Polled

The survey was started in early October.

By mail and telephone, Associated Press correspondents in 50 states polled 2,961 Republicans, including some city and town leaders. In Alaska, which has no counties, the national committeeman and committeewoman participated in the poll.

Of the total queried, more than 47 per cent replied. Republicans in New Jersey and Hawaii declined to participate.

Questions that were Asked

The questionnaire asked opinions on two points:

1. "Who is the strongest potential G. O. P. candidate against President Kennedy on the basis of present conditions? Why?"

2. "Whom do you think the

[Continued on page 2, col. 3]

GOLDWATER, CARPENTIER, LEAD

TRIBUNE survey shows Sen. Barry Goldwater (R., Ariz.) and Secretary of State Charles Carpentier have lengthened their leads for President and Governor re-spectively. Story on page 2.

Tribune Features

Tower Ticker	Page 11
Weather	Page 11
Editorials	Page 14
World Spotlight	Page 14
Social Security	Page 14
Sports	Sec. 3
Classified	Sec. 3
Business	Sec. 4
Crossword Puzzle	Sec. 5
Feature Section	Sec. 5
Travel and Resorts	Sec. 6
Magazine Section	Sec. 7
Comics	Sec. 8
Magazine of Books	Sec. 9
Deaths, Obituaries	Page 25

News summaries on page 4

President's Trip To Chicago Canceled

BY MICHAEL PAKENHAM
(Chicago Tribune Press Service)

Washington, Nov. 2.—President Kennedy hastily canceled a trip to attend a football game in Chicago today after a 45-minute White House conference on the Viet Nam situation with his advisers.

He remained in the White House through the day, and held a second, long conference late in the afternoon.

Aides said that the President's decision to cancel his trip was not based on knowledge or expectation of serious new problems in South Viet Nam, or its capital of Saigon, where the Diem regime, under heavy American criticism, was toppled in a coup d'etat.

Goes to Virginia Home

The conferences were described by Kennedy's press secretary as "continuing discussions of the current situation in Viet Nam."

After the second conference the President left the White House to join his wife and two children at their new Virginia Hunt country home on Rattlesnake mountain, 50 miles from Washington.

He planned no meetings with advisers for Sunday, but expected to have extensive conferences after his return to the capital Monday morning.

Witness at Conference

Kennedy sought to be in a position to follow closely the sporadic flow of information from the turbulent south Asian nation, officials said.

Among the participants were Secretary of State Dean Rusk, Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara, Gen. Maxwell D. Taylor, chairman of the joint

[Continued on page 2, col. 2]

THE WEATHER

SUNDAY, NOVEMBER 3, 1963

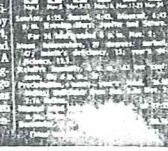
CHICAGO AND VICINITY: Mostly sunny and mayhee to-day; high, near, 40; partly cloudy tonight, low, in upper 30s; southerly winds 22 to 29 m. p. h. Tomorrow: Mostly cloudy; little temperature change.

NORTHERN ILLINOIS — Mostly sunny and warmer with southerly winds 15 to 25 m. p. h. tonight, clearing and cool in west portion; high 40 to 45. Sunday, mostly sunny, little change in temperature.

WEATHERMAN'S RECORD

Hi's forecast for yesterday: Fair and cool today; high, near 50.

TEMPERATURES IN CHICAGO



For Hi Mountain [illegible]

Sunrise 6:55, Sunset 4:55, Moonrise 5:40 [illegible]

Dew [illegible]